Growing Great Women in the Garden State Award Nomination Form 2024

The annual NJSWEP Growing Great Women in the Garden State Award recognizes and honors outstanding women who set a standard for quality and excellence in the environmental field. The Nominees should be distinguished from their peers by their professional commitment, leadership, support of other women, and achievements.

We solicit and encourage nominations of distinguished women professionals, both well-established in their careers or rising stars, from diverse sectors, including government, academia, private, and non-profit sectors.

Please answer the questions on the following pages to provide information about the Nominee that illuminates the reasons why they should be this year's Growing Great Women in the Garden State Award recipient. Please limit your responses to no more than two pages single-spaced. In addition, please provide a copy of the Nominee's resume, or a biographical summary at the time you submit your nomination. The NJSWEP Steering Committee may seek additional information if needed.

New in 2023: If you previously nominated someone for the GGWGS Award and they were not selected, we encourage you to consider resubmitting your nomination. You may resubmit your earlier nomination packet along with an up-to-date resume and the new Nomination Form Addendum which appears as page 4 of this Nomination Form.

Please email your nomination form together with required materials to GGWnominations@njswep.org. For any questions, please contact KariAnne Czajkowski at kczajkowski@rouxinc.com or Sonya Ward at Sonya.Ward@TetraTech.com.

Nomination Forms must be received by November 20, 2023.
